Exhibit "A"

RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
LA JOLLA GOLDEN TRIANGLE ROTARY CLUB FOUNDATION
a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

Article I

The name of the corporation is:

LA JOLLA GOLDEN TRIANGLE ROTARY CLUB FOUNDATION

Article II

This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purpose. Such purposes for which this corporation is organized are exclusively charitable within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and meeting the requirements for exemption provided by Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, and are to provide charity through contributions that are exempt from state and federal income tax.

The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is to promote, enhance, and finance the charitable purposes of the La Jolla Golden Triangle Rotary Club primarily through the establishment of an endowment fund, the income from which would be used to support such charitable purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Article III

Intentionally Omitted

Article IV

The corporation may admit persons to membership subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation, provided, however, that only persons who are currently members in good standing of the La Jolla Golden Triangle Rotary Club, have qualified as sustaining Paul Harris members as determined by the governing body of the La Jolla Golden Triangle Rotary Club, and contribute a minimum amount to the corporation for its general purposes, such minimum to be established pursuant to the Bylaws of the corporation, shall be members of the corporation. Members shall have all of the rights afforded members under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, including without limitation the right to vote to elect Directors of the corporation in the manner provided in the Bylaws of the corporation.

Article V

(a) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, provided, however, that this corporation may engage in such activities in accordance with and to the extent provided for in Section 501(h) of the Code. This corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(b) This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to the members thereof or to any private shareholder, as defined for the purposes of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or to any individual.

(c) The property, assets, profits and net income of this corporation are dedicated irrevocably to the purposes set for in Article II above, and no part of the net earnings of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, trustee, officer, shareholder or member thereof or to the benefit of any private individual.

(d) Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets of this corporation shall be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation or corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and which is qualified for exemption from taxation under Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision contained in these Articles or in any other governing instrument of this corporation, this corporation is required, during any period and to the extent that it is a private foundation described in Section 509 of the Code, to distribute its income for each taxable year at such times and in such manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code. In addition, this corporation shall not, during any period and to the extent that it is a private foundation described in Section 509d of the Code, (a) engage in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code); (b) retain any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code); (c) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code; or (d) make any taxable expenditures (as defined in section 4945(d) of the Code).
