B. Upon Death of Surviving Trustor

1. Payment of Debts, Funeral Expenses, and Taxes: Upon the death of the Surviving Trustor, and subject to any other provision herein or in the Surviving Trustor's Will to the contrary, the Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, pay out of the balance of Trust A, without apportionment, reimbursement or contribution from any beneficiary thereof, any of the following items to the extent such items are not paid or responsibility for their payment assumed by some other person, entity or estate:

a. All estate, inheritance, and other death taxes payable by reason of the Surviving Trustor's death, including penalties and interest thereon;

b. The Surviving Trustor's last illness and funeral expenses;

c. Attorneys' fees and other expenses of probate or trust administration incurred as a result of the Surviving Trustor's death; and

d. The Surviving Trustor's debts to the extent the Trustee determines that such debts were valid and enforceable claims against the Surviving Trustor as of the time of the Surviving Trustor's death.

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trustee shall not deliver or pay to or for the benefit of the executor, other personal representative, or the estate of the Surviving Trustor, either directly or indirectly, whether by payment of taxes, debts, administration expenses, or other charges enforceable against the Surviving Trustor's estate or otherwise, any of the proceeds of any life insurance policy received or held by the Trustee and otherwise excluded from the Surviving Trustor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.

2. Distribution of Balance of Trust A: Upon the death of the Surviving Trustor, the Trustee shall distribute the balance of Trust A, including principal and accrued or undistributed income, to such one or more persons or entities, including the Surviving Trustor's own estate, on any terms and conditions, either outright or in trust, and in any proportion that the Surviving Trustor shall appoint by will or codicil specifically referring to and exercising this testamentary general power of appointment.

Any of the balance of Trust A not effectively disposed of by the Surviving Trustor through a valid and effective exercise of the aforesaid testamentary general power of appointment shall be distributed as follows:

a. The Trustee shall make following pecuniary distributions, in cash, without reduction for state or federal death taxes or generation-skipping transfer tax:

i. Ten thousand and 00/100 dollars ($10,000.00) to the University of Oregon Foundation, of Eugene, Oregon.

ii. Ten thousand and 00/100 dollars ($10,000.00) to the La Jolla Golden Triangle Rotary Club Foundation, of La Jolla, California.

b. The remaining balance of Trust A shall not be added to Trust B, but shall be distributed pursuant to the terms of Article I, paragraphs 1.036(B)(2) and (3).
